Pre-Convention Informational & Strategy Meeting

Tuesday, January 29, 2013

Many of our delegates have inquired about the proceedings at the various conventions. The purpose of this meeting is to inform and explain the convention process for this convention and subsequent conventions. Also, a lot of additional information will be given related to elections and potential new rules being proposed by the Secretary of State and the state legislature. This meeting is not mandatory; however, if you have free time and feel that you can benefit from additional information, please make every effort to attend. Otherwise, I look forward to seeing you at the convention on February 7, 2013 in St. Clair Shores.

The pre-convention information/strategy meeting will be held at Palazzo Grande on Tuesday, January 29, 2013 at 6:00 p.m. Palazzo Grande is located at 54660 Van Dyke Avenue, Shelby Township, MI 48316 (just south of 25 Mile Road).

Since this is a strategy meeting, only the individuals receiving this letter will be permitted to attend the event.
